CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

The unique or different way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible

Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God's word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

St. Paschal Baylón was a devout Spanish monk. In his vocation as a lay brother, he worked as a chef, porter, gardener, and official beggar. He often gave so much to the poor that his brothers tried to limit his generosity. Because of his devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, he is the Patron Saint of Eucharistic Congresses and Societies.

The First National Eucharistic Congress in 83 Years

This is a pivotal moment in both American history and the legacy of the Catholic Church. We invite you to join us in this transformative experience which will feature incredible keynote speakers, uplifting worship, and powerful moments of prayer together with tens of thousands of Catholics from around the United States. Jesus Christ will be there. Will you?

For information: eucharisticcongress.org

SOME OF THIS WILL BE COVERED BY EWTN ON TV IN JULY.

WHEN	WHERE	WHO
July 17–21, 2024	Lucas Oil Stadium, Indianapolis	Laypeople, Clergy, & Religious

Opening Ceremonies

The National Eucharistic Congress will open with a major procession as we welcome pilgrims from all four corners of the US who have carried Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament to this final destination. It will culminate when Jesus enters the stadium, carried by Bishop Cozzens in a massive monstrance created specifically for the Congress. The Eucharist will take center stage, and the stadium will fall silent as we adore the King on his throne.

After hearing inspiring keynotes and personal testimonies, we will be lead in a powerful moment of worship as the Body of Christ. We will raise our voices in prayer as one Church and respond to what the Lord is doing, asking the Holy Spirit to move in and through us, the people of God. The rest of the week will be filled with impact sessions focusing on our spiritual growth and drawing us closer to Jesus, as well as prayer, worship, and holy mass.

- ★ Most of us cannot travel to Indianapolis for this event, BUT...we can be a part of the West Coast Pilgrimage from California to the National Congress! See the back page for details!

You and Your Family Are Invited to Meet Jesus on the Road!!!

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

Jesus calls his followers to love others as he loves them. Inspired by this call, Christians have shown his love through works of mercy such as visiting the sick and imprisoned, educating young people, and praying endlessly for others. Not only are these works of mercy directed to meet material or spiritual needs, but they are ways in which Christ draws people closer to himself.

In the Diocese of Amarillo, the diocesan criminal justice ministry answers Christ's call to visit and serve prisoners and patients confined to hospitals. Since 2004, this ministry has expanded to bring the Eucharist, Sacred Scripture, and prayer to inmates of the seven prisons and two large hospitals in the diocese. This ministry of mercy includes retreats during which inmates can encounter the love of Jesus, heal from past failures and wounds, and develop new hope for the future. Many inmates have experienced spiritual conversions that have inspired them to join formation programs and enter the Catholic Church.

The criminal justice ministry is one of many innovative outreach efforts made by dioceses supported by Catholic Home Missions. Home mission dioceses have small or widely dispersed Catholic populations, large or rugged areas of land that make it difficult to minister to the needs of the people, or economic challenges caused by poverty, unemployment, or natural disasters. Your participation in the annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports dioceses throughout the United States and its territories that need financial help to sustain core pastoral services and missions of mercy to those they serve.

For more information about the Catholic home missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

What Is a Home Mission Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.
